

SAR Compatriot: Gregory H. Keller

Patriot: Philip Marsteller, Lt. Colonel

1776-1782 (?)

Philip Marsteller was a delegate to the Pennsylvania Constitutional Convention of 1776 and a member of the state assembly. He was Paymaster of the State Militia and was appointed Lt. Colonel in 1777. He acted as an agent for the French fleet in 1779 and was Assistant Forage Master in 1780 and later named Assistant Deputy Quartermaster General. He was a personal friend of George Washington and the only non-mason pall bearer at his funeral. Colonel Marsteller is buried in Christ Church Yard in Alexandria Virginia.
